Keeping you moving during Christmas and New Year

We've produced this special booklet to provide you with information about bus, train and ferry services in Merseyside during the Christmas and New Year holiday.

We've listened to your feedback, so this year we've included all the information about festive services in this single, handy booklet!

Buses: on page 3, you'll find a summary of all buses over the festive season, and on pages 8 - 26, you'll find timetables of the special services running on Boxing Day and New Year's Day.

Free Christmas Day Bus Services: once again we're providing a network of special free bus services. See pages 4 - 6 for details. You can download full timetables from our website at merseytravel.gov.uk or call Traveline on 0871 200 22 33, before Christmas Day, for full details.

Merseyrail: you'll find details of Merseyside's train services on pages 28 - 31.

Mersey Ferries: on page 7, you'll find a summary of Mersey Ferries services.

Traveline is open every day, (except Christmas Day), so if you need any help planning your journey, give our friendly team a call - they'll do all they can to help you!

This booklet has been produced by Merseytravel on behalf of all Merseyside's bus and train companies. We've done our best to make sure that all the information shown in it is correct, but we and the companies whose services we show in it, can't be held liable for any mistakes.

We've produced it as early as possible to provide you with advance information about public transport in Merseyside over the Christmas and New Year period. Changes can be made at short notice - if we are made aware of any changes since we printed it, we'll update the online version we show on our website. Please visit merseytravel.gov.uk to download the latest copy.

This is version 4 which was updated on 17 December 2012.
